

The Romans- project ideas

Here are some ideas about Ancient Rome and the Romans that you could research. Think about how you want to present your information: PowerPoint, notes, a poster, little booklets or even a model.

The topic is all about exploring and finding out more about the Ancient Romans and how they lived. We want to find out what it must have been like to have lived in Ancient Roman times. HAVE FUN!

Leisure time Find out about what the Romans did during their leisure time. What games did they play? Compare your hobbies and leisure time to those of a Roman family.	Weapons and life in the Roman army Find out more about life in the Roman army. What battle techniques were used? What is the tortoise? Can you make a model Roman catapult?	Roman school and numbers Find out about Roman numerals and how to use the numbering system. What was life like in a Roman school? What would children have done during the day?
Boudicca and the Celts Find out about Boudicca and the Celts fight against the Roman invasion.	Roman art Can you make a mosaic using different materials? Find out about different examples of Roman art.	Roman legacy What has been the legacy of the Romans on art, music, literature and language?
Roman Emperors Find out about the different Roman Emperors- create a timeline to show when they ruled.	Roman clothes Find out about the different clothes worn by Roman people (rich, poor and in the middle). Can you create a Roman outfit from things you have at home?	Roman settlements in Britain Find out more about local Roman settlements Find out about the different place names.
Gladiators Find out about life as a Roman gladiator What was the training like? Who or what would a gladiator have to fight? What weapons might a gladiator use?	Roman architecture Find our more about Roman building roads, aqueducts, amphitheatres etc. Can you make a model or diorama to show what you have learnt?	